A Campaign Song for the Radicals.

BY SKIPOFF.

First Verse—Preliminary.

Come all ye loyal scalawags,
Pay up your usual poll-tax,
And hold yourselves in readiness
To vote for Grant and Colfax.

Second Verse—Prophetic.

That "cussed tyrant," Andy J.,
For his usurping, bold acts,
We'll topple off his lofty throne
And "hist up" Grant and Colfax!

Third Verse—A New K. G. C.

The Constitution's in our way,
We'll trample down the old tracks,
And start a Ku-Klux of our own—
The Knights of Grant and Colfax!

Fourth Verse—Reconstructive.

While fixing up disloyal States,
Our grip shall not be so lax,
That "rebs" who fought shall ever vote
Against our Grant and Colfax.

Fifth Verse—Perfumed.

Strong, with a most amazing strength,
'Twill make each loyal soul wax,
To see the niggers flock in droves
To vote for Grant and Colfax!

Sixth Verse—Manly and Brotherly.

The loyal freedmen jump for joy,
Their faces gleam like coal-sacks;
Each one shall vote a dozen times
For "massa" Grant and Colfax!

Seventh Verse—Our Policy.

The country's welfare we won't heed;
Those acts shall be our sole acts
Which tend to keep ourselves in power
By "boosting" Grant and Colfax.

Eighth Verse—Stragetical.

Our colored soldiers we will arm
With rifle, spear and pole-ax,
To mutilate each man who votes
Against our Grant and Colfax!

Ninth Verse—Financial.

And mayhap in a thousand years
We'll change the green to gold-backs;
If all who do's they ought to do,
And vote for Grant and Colfax.

Tenth and Last Verse—Fire-works.

Hurrah! A thousand times hurrah!
And shout until your jowl cracks!
Legions of niggers join the strain,
And "holler" Grant and Colfax!

U. O. R. M.—The United Order of Red Men laid the corner stone of their new Hall on Bush street, above Dupont, on Tuesday last, with appropriate ceremonies. The building is to have a frontage of thirty feet, with a depth of one hundred and twenty-five feet; it is to be three stories high, with a basement; each story will be seventeen feet high in the clear. The ground floor will be used for a store; the floor above is to be one large hall, and the next floor will be divided into two halls. The style of architecture will be modern Gothic. The procession was composed of fine looking, substantial men, who would do credit to any institution. The Order is increasing rapidly in strength and influence. It exists solely on the basis of beneficial and protective orders, and though exclusively German, is founded upon the traditions of the aborigines of the American continent. Local differences of jurisdiction some years ago occasioned the withdrawal of Metamora Tribe, No. 4, of Pennsylvania, from the Order of Red Men, out of which tribe grew the United or Independent Order, the old stock prefixing the word Improved to their title. Thus it is that there are two Orders so nearly alike. Red Manship is older in America than Odd Fellowship, having the origin of its present form in the difficulties which sprung up between England and America in 1809–14. Prior to that, however, the Order existed in a crude state, out of which grew the famous Tamany Society, of New York, now a political association only. The published history of the Order traces back the Society as far as 1779. This and all other kindred associations having for their object the amelioration of the condition of man, and founded upon the principles of benevolence and charity, have our best wishes for their success and usefulness.—[New Age, Aug. 22.

QUEER THINGS ABOUT BEES.—The poppy-bee makes her nest in the ground, burrowing down about three inches. At the bottom she makes a large round hole, and lines it splendidly with the scarlet leaves of the wild poppy. She cuts and fits the tapestry till it is thick and soft and warm, then partly fills the cell with honey, lays an egg, folds down the red blankets, and closes up the hole so it cannot be distinguished; and there, in its cosy cradle, with food to eat and a safe nook to rest in, she leaves her baby bee to take care of itself. The leaf-cutting bee makes her cell of green leaves, shaping them like thimbles. These little jars she half fills with a rose colored paste of honey and pollen from thistles, lays her egg, and covers her pets with round leaf lids that fit exactly. The mason bee makes its nest of mud and mortar. It looks like a bit of dirt sticking to the wall, but has cells within. The mother bee does all the work, sticking little grains of sand and earth together with her own glue. The carpenter bee bores holes in posts and makes her cell of sawdust and glue. The carding bees live in holes among stones and roots, making nests of moss, lined with wax, to keep the wet out, with a long gallery by which to enter. They find a bit of moss, and several bees place themselves in a row, with their backs towards the nest; then the foremost lays hold of the moss, and pulls it up with her jaws, drives it with her fore feet under her body as far as possible. The second does the same; and in this way tiny heaps of prepared moss are got to the nest by the file of four or five, and others weave it into shape.—[Merry's Museum.

CANNOT BE DEFEATED.—The Council Bluffs (Iowa) Democrat says: It is asserted that Chief Justice Chase considers the nomination of Seymour and Blair the best that could possibly have been made. He says the name and record of Blair are worth thousands of votes. Determined henceforth and forever to co-operate with the Democracy, he thanks the friends who sustained him before the Convention, if not with their votes, at least, with their kind wishes and friendly reserved choice. He believes that Seymour and Blair cannot be defeated by any combination of influences now before the country.

The Mighty Counter Revolution Approaching.

The New York Herald, heretofore supporting Grant and Colfax, alarmed at the "signs of the times," and the uprising of the people, is about to abandon the radical cause as hopeless. The Herald of August 8th says:

The figures, as they come from Kentucky, are mounting up for the Democratic majority. The last returns, which we published yesterday, set down eighty thousand majority for Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and these returns represent the country districts from which they come in slowly, and will probably show larger gains, according as they are received. The result of the June election in Oregon was quite as remarkable an evidence that the people are awake to the multifarious mischief which the radical party has wrought in its administration of the Government. We cannot, therefore, shut our eyes to the direction of these straws which show how the wind blows. The Republican majority in Oregon in 1866 was 527; the Democratic majority for member of Congress (the solitary one who represents that young State) was, at the election of the first Monday in June, 1868, 1,209. Here was a gain of the anti-radical party of over 1,500 votes in a voting population of about 20,000. Taking these two States as an example, we will find that the people are not abandoning their hostility to the wanton and dangerous policy of the ruling faction, which, during three years of peace, has increased the national debt, and kept up war prices and war taxation. The Kentucky election has taken place since the Presidential nominations of both parties were made; and yet so far from the nomination of the radical Convention strengthening the backbone of the faction, or the nomination of Seymour and Blair weakening the spinal column of the Democracy in that State, they have turned events the other way. These results are but the early indications (the skirmish fire, as it were) of the great revolutionary battle which is about to open. If the other State elections which are to come off between this and the Presidential contest in November next should happen to give like indications of popular hostility to the radical usurpations and corruptions, who can tell but that the nominees of the Chicago Convention may be overwhelmed by the weight of Radical maladministration, since the rebellion was wound up by General Grant, that they have to carry on their shoulders? If we look at the facts which confront the people when they come to vote, we find that taxes to the amount of three thousand millions of dollars have been imposed on us. We find that the national debt has been increased to the tune of three thousand millions more. And this, when the country is at peace, and the people had a right to hope for a reduction of taxes and the national obligation as the fruit of victory won, God knows with what terrible sacrifices to every home and hearth in the country. But instead of the load being lightened, we are called upon to bear further exactions; to submit to increased expenditures. In order to keep a portion of the country in subjection, more troops are called for. Men foisted into Congress from the Southern States, and Governors who really represent little more than a mock constituency, demand from the Government an expensive army to assist them in carrying out schemes and ambitions which are purely partisan, and are positively destructive of the peace and good of the country. It is facts like these which meet intelligent men of all parties when they come to cast their votes, and we cannot be surprised that majorities are found to protest emphatically against a continuance of this kind of Government.

The people demand a change, and it is the people, and not any particular party, who will make the issue at the approaching election. Names and individual candidates count for very little in this contest. It is a cheap Government, honestly administered, in view of the fact that the country is at peace, which the people require. A serious counter-revolution, therefore terrible to the politicians, no doubt, but good and wholesome for the people—because it is being born of the people—is at hand. Nothing but the marvelous activity of our population and the untold resources of the country could enable us to bear the present burden of taxation, or induce us to submit to carry it so long. But it is evident that a reaction has set in, and it may be that in the course of events as now foreshadowed, the next elections will result in sending a majority to Congress possibly in favor of repudiation, but certainly in favor of a vast reduction of the present enormous taxation. The public mind leans that way. Let us have peace, real peace, is the cry, and the popular heart naturally yearns for the possession of that prosperity which should accompany peace. The result of the Presidential election may be so vaguely decided in the conflict between the rights of the Northern and Southern States in the matter of franchise, as regulated by radical legislation, as to drift us into another civil war; but it is clearly the duty of the Northern States to set the seal emphatically upon the issue by their votes and leave nothing to chance, nor no opening for conflict. The expression of anti-radical sentiment in the late elections in Kentucky and Oregon is but the precursor of a great counter-revolution, upon the verge of which the country stands this moment.

Following is another significant article from the same paper, of August 11th, headed "The Radicals and the People—Prospects for the Presidency":

Oregon is nominally a Republican State, but this year it has gone completely over to the Democrats. In the previous election it had about its usual Republican majority, giving that decision on political issues that is natural with a population supplied in a great degree from regions having the most active sympathy with the radical spirit; yet this year it gives and unmistakably definite majority to the other side. This is a very significant fact in an election in such a State, coming immediately after the party with which it usually acts has put its Presidential candidates in the field. Kentucky is another State whose people have recently given formal expression to their political predilections. The election in this State has taken place since the naming of the Presidential candidates on both sides, and Kentucky not only goes for the Democrats—we should expect that—but it goes their way by such an overwelming majority as to indicate that other political opinions have hardly force enough there to keep themselves alive. Here, then, are two States that have gone to the Democrats after their people have been able to perceive the drift of Presidential movements. One is an old slave State, not, however, the most fiercely Democratic of the slave States even in the old time—a State that did not nominally go with the South in the war, but had its sympathies that way, yet was thought to be safely enough organized to do better for the Republicans than in previous years. The other is a free Northern State, peopled by that sort of community that our political history shows is always the readiest to be aggressive, to take the side of any party that calls itself the party of progress, and that is naturally much less susceptible of conservative influences than old communities.

From these facts of the situation it is evident that the popular impulse is against the radicals, which began two years ago, and seemed to culminate in the fifty thousand majority against that party in the Empire State, has yet lost none of its momentum. It was deeper than most men thought. It had fast hold upon the ultimate convictions of each man, and thus became the positive purpose of the mass, and it is doubtful if there is any power to stop its progress. The nominations have had no effect upon it. The sudden recognition of the radicals that they had gone too far in their assaults on everything dear to the people, and their consequent halt, came too late. The promise of honest Government that they make in presenting the name of Grant, the assurance that their future views of national necessities shall be taken from the standpoint of the commander who saved the country—all this is is quite unheeded. So is the threat from the other side, given with the name of Seymour, that everything shall be construed in favor of the men who endeavored to break the Government to pieces. Popular will goes forward blind to all, conscious only of its stored up determination. Individuals are nothing. There is no charm in any name. The contest of great principles must be carried to its final result. Such is the popular temper. Only the deepest sense of the outrages against the country and its laws, as well as against humanity, practised by the radical leaders, could have brought the people to this mood, and wrought the conviction that no other danger is so great as for that party to continue in power.

HINTS TO FARERR.—What hose to use—In planting or hoeing corn, use the ordinary hoes in general use. Neither India ruber or cotton hose would be of any account in a cornfield; no more would one of Hoe's eight cylinder presses.

How to hold the plow—Don't try to hold it out at arm's length. You can't do it. If you haven't a plow of your own, get out an attachment on your neighbor's who owes you. Any Justice will tell you whether you can hold it or not.

The best time to put in rye—I asked an old farmer once, when was the best time to put in rye. He looked at his watch and replied: "This is about the hour." The rye was immediately put in. All seasons are the same for putting in rye.

How to keep corn—The best place to keep corn is in a corn house, though some people prefer to keep it in the system—in the juice. If they don't keep corn, they keep corned.

Fences and fencing—Good fencing is essential on a farm. Get a good "fencing master" to teach you. A rail fence is better than an imaginary one. You can't repair a worm fence by taking vermifuge.

To make your stables warm in the winter, set fire to them.

To make stone fence—Take equal parts of whisky and cider. This is the reciprocal stone fence; the more you lay of it, the more it will "lay" you.

Easy to draw saw logs—Draw them on a piece of paper with crayon pencil. After a little practice you will be able to draw the largest kind of saw-logs with perfect ease.

Pork—Packing thread is of no use in packing pork. In curing hams the time varies. Hams that have got trichnia can't be cured at all.

VIGILANTES ON THE PLAINS.—We some time ago gave a statement that the vigilantes of the Plains were after the woman and man Kingston, who kept the Two Mile House, North of this city, where a murder is supposed to have been committed. The St. Joe Union says what is deemed reliable intelligence has been received in that city that the vigilants overtook the pair, shot Kingston and hanged his wife. It is also rumored in our city, says the Atchison Press, that an abandoned woman, who was once an inmate of their house here, but now lives in St. Louis, reports that the Kingstons murdered several strangers while in Atchison. These victims were generally plainsmen, who were enticed into their infamous house, stupefied with liquor, robbed and murdered, and their bodies hauled to the river after midnight and thrown in.—[Omaha Republican.

THE AUGEAN STABLES.—Augess, king of the Elians, is designated by Theocritus as the son of the god Helios. He was rich in all sorts of rural wealth, and through the god's favor his cattle prospered and multiplied with astonishing success. His herds were so numerous, that the filth accumulated in the stable or cattle enclosures beyond all power of endurance. Eurystheus, as an insult to Hercules, imposed upon him the obligation of cleansing this stable; the hero, disdaining to carry off the filth upon his shoulders, turned the course of the river Alpheios through the building, and swept the encumberance away. Hence the phrase, to cleanse the Augean stable—to clear away monstrous abuse.

A SPECIMEN.—The New York Tribune says California's "six months of hot, dry, cloudless Summer insure a great growth of beets of exceedingly saccharine quality." Whereupon the Metropolitan Record remarks: Gorham, Forney's successor, is a specimen.

"WAR BETWEEN THE STATES."—The Agent, H. Hollo, 419 Montgomery street, San Francisco, has placed us under obligations for a copy of a valuable work entitled "A Constitutional View of the Late War Between the States; Its Causes, Character and Results. Presented in a series of colloquies at Liberty Hall, by Alexander H. Stephens, in two volumes." The unquestioned ability of the author, the importance of the subject discussed and the interesting, comprehensive style of the work, at once commend it to the attention and careful perusal of the public, particularly to the politician. The work is dedicated "to all true friends of the Union under the Constitution of the United States, throughout their entire limits, without regard to present or past party associations; and to all true friends of constitutional liberty, the world over, now and forever—especially to all, everywhere, who may, now or hereafter, look for the Federative System between neighboring Free Democratic States, as the surest means of saving mankind from ultimate universal Monarchial rule." The first volume, now ready for distribution, should be found within reach of all who desire to make a searching "inquiry into the nature of the Government of the United States, or the nature of that Union which exists between the States under the Constitution, with the causes or conflict of principles, which led to a resort to arms, and the character of the war thus inaugurated." The present volume is beautifully illustrated by first class steel engravings of Washington, Jefferson, Calhoun, Webster, Clay and Jackson. It is neatly printed on a fine quality of paper, securely bound and handsomely finished.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—A Seymour and Blair meeting was recently held at Elk Lick, Missouri. The Radicals threatened to break it up, and appeared on the ground armed and equipped for the purpose. The attack commenced by the killing of a Democrat in attendance by one of the Radical leaders of the mob. A scene of strife and confusion followed, which resulted in the death of three Radicals and the wounding of several on both sides. The Radicals finally retreated, but not before they succeeded in breaking up the meeting. Is this what Radicals mean when they cry, "Let us have Peace?" If that is the case, then the sooner Democrats organize for the purpose of resisting such acts of infamy the better it will be for the country. "Let us have peace."

GOOD NEWS FROM MAINE.—The New York Express says that the Democracy are rallying to their work to place the State in the forefront of the defenders of the Constitution. Cheering indications of a reaction are manifested everywhere within its borders. In Penobscot and Kennebec counties—hot-beds of Radicalism—the people are flocking around the Democratic banner. The Eastern and Northern sections of the State is even more enthusiastic. The contest is appreciated and its momentous issues fully comprehended.

PLACER HERALD.—This staunch Democratic paper has commenced its seventeenth volume. It is one of the first papers established on this coast, and has always been conducted with ability, advocating through adversity, as well as prosperity, the best interests of Democracy and the perpetuation of the true principles of good Government. Hon. Joseph Walkup stands at the helm as editor. If honesty of purpose, firmness, determination and labor in a good cause are worthy of reward, the Herald will prosper.

WICKED MAN.—Allen, who has heretofore had the name of being the most wicked man in New York, is reported to have reformed recently. "While the lamp holds out to burn," etc.

ELOQUENT SPEECH.—One of the most able and important speeches recently made is that of Hon. D. W. Voorhees delivered at Terre Haute, Ind., on the 8th of August.

TEN CENT EDITION.—An enterprising Yankee promises to furnish a ten cent edition of Grant's speeches. An exchange says a cent a speech is an exorbitant price.

KNAPP.—Elder Knapp is preaching in Vallejo at present.

The Chances.

Sufficient time has elapsed since the nominations were made for calm, deliberate judgment to take the place of the excitement usually attending such events, and the chances of success for this or that candidate may now be taken into consideration with less liability to error than when the news first flashed across the wires conveying the intelligence of the choice of the opposing candidates and the platform of principles adopted by their respective parties. The question of propriety in the proposition to continue the Radical party in power for another term is now engaging the serious attention of all who feel an interest in the future of the country. The responsibility rests on the people of deciding whether that party shall again be invested with power to trample on the rights of the people—whether constitutional liberty shall be supplanted by the horrors of military despotism and the reckless ambition of evil men shall be crowned with a triumph which means "four more years of Radical misrule; four years of standing armies and Freedmen's Bureaus; hundreds of millions of taxes wrung from the Northern laborers to glut the idle Southern black; four years of negro supremacy, of oppression at the South, and continued derangement of our industries; four years of military arrests, of cruelty and despotism, a widening of the breach between the North and the South, an arraying of white man against black man; four years of wildest extravagance, shameless corruption, unendurable taxation, discrimination against labor, subserviency to peculating organization, and general degredation of the American name;" or whether, in a word, peace, prosperity and confidence shall be restored throughout the land by the election of a statesman and patriot at the helm, and the inauguration of principles which are alone calculated to re-establish national honor and greatness. While such questions are being discussed it is good to realize the truth that all who are not deceived by false representations, guided by unholy ambition or embittered by corrupting prejudices, are uniting their influences to secure the success of the candidates put forth by the New York Convention, and the platform of principles adopted by that body, as best calculated to advance the interests of the country. Public meetings in every part of the country have been held, endorsing enthusiastically and with a unanimous spirit of unflinching determination the action and purposes of the chosen delegates to that Convention. The Democratic party has been constantly receiving accessions from the conservative element of the opposite party, until now there is no question that it has become the dominant party, so largely in the ascendency that its most sanguine enemies only hope to defeat it through fraud, corruption and unfair means. But the voice of the people has been heard through the press, through spontaneous gatherings in towns and villages, through immense mass meetings in the larger cities, through conventions and by the action of States, and they are going into the contest with that spirit of confidence and courage that falters not in the face of any opposition, however unscrupulous it may be. With such prestiges, such hopes and high aims to accomplish, there can be no doubt of the triumph of Democracy in November.

FLORIDA RULED OUT.—It appears, says the Call, that, according to the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which Secretary Seward declares is the fundamental law of the land, Florida is not entitled to Representatives in the Electorial College. The Legislature of that State recently enacted a law which declares that the people of the State shall not vote for Presidential Electors. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution says that "when the right to vote at any election for the choice of Electors for President and Vice President of the United States is denied to the people of any State, said State is to lose its representation in Congress." And Article II., Section 1, Part 2, of the United States Constitution says "each State shall have a number of Electors equal to the whole number of Senators and Representative to which the State may be entitled in the Congress." Florida denies to its people the right to vote for Presidential Electors at the coming election, and therefore loses, ipso facto, the right of representation in Congress, and with that the right of representation in the Electoral College. Thus the Florida tricksters have overreached themselves.

UNSELFISH DEVOTION.—The Irish have always been distinguished for charitable characteristics. During the period since 1848 those who have made their homes in America, have remitted to their relatives in Ireland the enormous sum of fourteen millions and a half pounds sterling.

THE CABINET FOR SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.—Late news from the East represents the Cabinet, with the exception of Seward, as earnestly in favor of the election of Seymour and Blair. "Still they come."

FIELD FOR TEMPERANCE LECTURERS.—In San Francisco one night last week, thirty-seven "drunks" were registered on the books of the City Hall before ten o'clock.

BAD PLACE.—George C. Gorham said in one of his Nevada speeches that "no decent man can get into the White House at Washington." George went in.

IDAHO ALL RIGHT.—The Democratic nominee for Delegate to Congress from Idaho has been elected by a handsome majority.

A SAD CASE.—The editor of the Clear Lake Courier grieves because he has no babies.

EARTHQUAKE.—The citizens of Vallejo were startled last week by an earthquake.

WHAT'NEXT?—A soap mine has been discovered in Sonoma county.

Letter from Buckeye.

BUCKEYE, YOLO COUNTY, August 27, 1868.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: Though Buckeye boasts no knight of the quill among her citizens, to keep the public aware of her existence, yet you may rest assured that she "still lives," the rendezvous of a live Democracy, and will prove her faith by her works next November.

The goddess of plenty has smiled propitiously upon the farmers of this section and their fields have yielded an abundant harvest. They are just beginning to realize the fact that if the reins of Government should be placed in the hands of the Democrats, and the onerous taxation which consumes their profits be lessened by being placed as well upon the rich, they could soon hope to live with ease and comfort. They are tired of giving the reward of their labor to pay the interest on untaxed bonds, and they have no hope of relief if the Radical party remain in power for the next four years. They "know no way of judging the future but by the past, and judging by the past," they ask, "What have the Radical party done since their accession to power to lessen the burdens of taxation?" Their feelings of justice revolt at the idea of the ignorant negroes of the South being placed, by force, upon a social and political equality with themselves, and helping to enact laws for the government of the intelligent white men of the Pacific Coast. They feel that the ensuing Presidential election will determine whether or not white men shall rule America, and hence their thoughts are actively bent to adopt some plan by which they may defeat the negro-equality party. That party, alarmed at the influence exerted over the negroes by the Democrats of Mississippi, are seeking to have the Presidential Electors chosen by the so-called Legislatures of the Southern States. These bodies are illegal, elected by negroes who had the franchise conferred on them by force, and were elected too on issues entirely different from those now presented. The white men did not vote, and if these bodies choose the Electors, they will represent the negroes alone.

The Democrats of California have declared by their platform their unwillingness to submit to a President elected by the negro votes of the South. How will this be avoided if the South is allowed to vote? If the attempt now being made by the Radical party to have Presidential Electors chosen by the bodies sitting as Legislatures in those States should fail, still under their present constitutions the negroes will be allowed to vote. The ballot, as it has been for the last three years, will be controlled by the bayonet, and every species of fraud practiced to carry the electoral votes of the South for Grant. If there is a doubt in the mind of any that the military will control the ballot-box, let them remember that not long since Gen. Sheppard, one of the military satraps for the State of Alabama, issued a general order publicly reprimanding some of the soldiers of his command for expressing sentiments unfavorable to Gen. Grant as a Presidential candidate. If Gen. Grant did not secretly connive at such action, why did he not rebuke Gen. Sheppard? If the strong arm of military power thus prohibits the soldiers from speaking against Gen. Grant, will it not be exercised to restrain them from voting against him?

It seems clear that if the negro votes are not to be allowed, the Southern States can not be permitted to vote until the Supreme Court shall have declared its opinion on the unconstitutionality of the Congressional act in regard to those States and the white men be allowed, unawed by the bayonet, to say whether or not the negro shall be allowed to vote.

Let the contest then, in the approaching Presidential election, be among the non-seceeding States, and if they beat us fairly we will submit.

GUILIELMUS.

NERVOUS AFFECTIONS.

The shapes of the clouds and the trees do not differ more widely than the forms of nervous disease. Sometimes both the mind and body are affected, sometimes the body only, and often ten the complaint is confined to a single member. In one class of cases the motive nerves alone are disordered, as in St. Vitus' Dance; in another class the nerves of sensation only are attacked, as in neuralgia, tic douloureux, toothache, ear-ache, &c. Pain is, in fact, the immediate consequence of a disturbed condition of the nervous system; for only through the delicate fibers of which it is composed can pain be experienced. Tremors, hysteria, and most of the unpleasant feelings usually included under the head of nervousness, arise from the weakness of these sensitive threads which pervade every part of the animal structure and have their source in the fountain head of all sensation—the brain. The tonic action of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is of vast service in cases of this kind. Nervous headache, ordinary face-ache, neuralgic pains and every variety of sposmodic torture, are quickly alleviated by the use of the preparation which at once braces and tranquilizes the nerves. Persons of a limphatic temperament and feeble organization are especially subject to these complaints, and should take the Bitters daily as an invigorant. Ladies will derive great benefit from them in all the peculiar physical and mental disturbances to which, as a sex, they are subject. Asafœtida, valerain, and the other nervines usually prescribed for these affections, at best merely alleviate them for the time being; but the Bitters are a permanant invigorant, and their value as a remedy for every phase of nervousness is beyond all estimate.

Constitutional Weakness.

It is a great thing to have a sound and vigorous constitution. There is nothing that money can buy comparable in value to this best gift of nature. The difference between the individual who has it and the unfortunate who has it not, is just the difference between the man who goes into battle clothed in defensive armor and one who has nothing to oppose to sword and bullet but his naked breast. "The pestilence that walketh in darkness, the sickness that destoyeth at noonday," while it lays low the man of feeble stamina, is often conquered by the native strength of what is called an "iron constitution."

Heaven, however, has not endowed even a moiety of mankind with this inestimable blessing, and therefore it behooves those who have it not, to resort to those most efficient means of constitutional invigoration which science can supply. There is good warrant for asserting that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are admirably adapted to promote this end. Other tonics have their drawbacks. The concentrated extract of poisonous vegetable substances, which within the last few years have been introduced into the practice of medicine as invigorants, are all extremely dangerous. Prussic acid and strychnine, though often given as strengthening medicines, are not safe even in the diminutive doses; and quinine disastrously affects the nerves and the bones. But in HOSTETTER'S BITTERS there is positively nothing that is not healthful and wholesome. They contain no ingredient which by any process could be converted into an active poison, and yet as a constitutional stimulant are infinitely preferable to any of the sulphates and acetates which have been recently added to the materia medica.

The Government Countersign.

The counterfeiting of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is now a somewhat more serious as well as difficult business than it was a few years ago, each bottle of the genuine article being authenticated by the official endorsement of the United States Revenue Department in the form of a stamp engraved on steel, the counterfeit of which is a felony. See, therefore, that this Government Countersign, as well as the engraved label and note of hand of the proprietors, is attached to the bottle. The lable is embellished with a superb representation of St. George on horseback, in the act of spearing the Dragon, and underneath is a shield or escutcheon, bearing a warning inscription, which counterfeiters are advised to read before they encounter the penalty which it sets forth. Below this again is Hostetter & Smith's note of hand, the signature to which it would be rather a serious business to forge. If the public will look to these verifications of the genuineness of the article before they purchase, they cannot be deceived. The proprietary lable and Government stamp are both executed on steel in the most elaborate style of bank-note engraving, and are probably the most expensive specimen of graphic art ever attached to any medical preparation.

HOSTETTER & SMITH,

PITTSBURG, PA.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 4, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa.—Gents—I think I am only doing the part of a good citizen when I testify to the great benefits received by me from the use of your Stomach Bitters during the last five years. Sojourning for a short time in the oil regions, in 1861, I had a severe billious attack, which, in connection with dyspepsia, left me in a very weak condition. I was advised to try your Bitters, and, having procured a bottle, found that they worked like a charm upon me, eight pounds having been added to my weight in the space of one week, and new life seemed to have been infused into my system—so much so, that I have been induced to use them every Summer since that time. As a tonic, I think they are invaluable. This Summer, having a similar attack (and as before, much reduced), although under the treatment of an A No. 1 physician, I was again obliged to have recourse to the old Bitters, and with the same good result, having gained six pounds within a few days. I purchased a half dozen bottles a few weeks since, and propose to use them regularly as a tonic.

Wishing you every success, I remain

Yours, gratefully, WM. MILLER.

FRANKLIN, Clinton Co., Ind., Dec. 2, 1861.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents—Some 18 months since I was troubled with weakness of the stomach, and had lost my appetite, and, on the recommendation of Dr. Cox, our family physician, I purchased several bottles of your Bitters, which had the desired effect of restoring me to health. But of late I have not been able to obtain the Bitters in our place. Please inform me where I can purchase them, or if you will send me some on sale, I will be pleased to have the agency, as I can recommend them to be what they are represented.

Yours truly, JOHN F. HUTCHINSON.

ELDERTON, Pa., Nov. 6, 1865.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—We have been selling your Stomach Bitters for 18 months, and find them an excellent medicine. All that is necessary is to let the people know their virtue and they will use them. I have tried them myself, and now recommend them to all who have weak stomachs. Respectfully yours,

WATTERSON & McPHERSON, Druggists.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents—It is with the greatest pleasure that I recommend your Stomach Bitters to the public. I think it the best Bitters of the day. It is especially adapted to the South and West, where billiary derangements of the liver are prevalent. Ten years' experience in the use of compounds as curatives compels me to give your Bitters the preference that its popularity merits.

A. ANGLE, M. D.

GALLATIA, Saline Co., Ill.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—I have practiced medicine for many years, and have used your Bitters in a number of cases with great success, and take pleasure in recommending them to the public in general.

MATTOON, Ill., Jan. 21, 1865.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—I sell more of your Stomach Bitters than of any other medicine. Parties who have tried them speak in very high praise of their excellent virtues. I have used them myself, and prescribe them with unparalleled success. Very respectfully yours, G. T. GILNER, M. D.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last John Cunningham, an old citizen of this county, drove his team to Knight's Landing, intending to take home a load of lumber. While waiting at the lumber-yard a steam-whistle was sounded in the vicinity, which frightened his horses and they started on the run. Cunningham ran after the team and in attempting to get hold of the lines, was caught between one of the wheels and the wagon-box and dragged some distance down the street. When opposite the Union Hotel, some part of the wagon was broken and Cunningham was thrown to the ground—the wheels passing over him. He was immediately picked up by those who witnessed the accident, and a physician called. His injuries were found to be fatal, and death relieved his sufferings in a few moments. Cunningham was respected by all who knew him, and his many friends deeply regret his untimely death. His remains were deposited in the Church-yard, a few miles north from Cacheville, on Sunday last, in presence of a large gathering of friends. He was a member of the I.O O.F., in the Atlantic States, and was buried in accordance with the rites of that Order by Brethren residing at Knight's Landing—Rev. W. C. Curry, of this place, officiating as Chaplain.

MEETING AT KNIGHT'S LANDING.—On last Saturday evening a large number of Democrats gathered at Knight's Landing to listen to the eloquent Holt, of San Francisco, and Brown, of Sacramento, both of whom had been announced to speak on the occasion. The meeting was called to order by D. C. Hoffman, President of the Democratic Club at that place, and Judge Gwinn was elected to preside. The Judge opened the meeting by a brief but eloquent address. Col. Thomas H. Holt was then introduced and proceeded in a masterly manner to discuss the issues of the day. His speech, throughout, was listened to with the greatest attention, and frequently interrupted by applause; at the close of his remarks W. B. C. Brown was called for. Mr. Brown's effort was also a happy success. This was one of the best meetings of the campaign in this county. Many ladies were present, and all seemed pleased with the entertainment. Watkins and Underhill were present with their "speaker from abroad," and made the air ring with the report of Democratic powder. At midnight the meeting adjourned with three deafening cheers for Seymour and Blair, and three more for the speakers.

SIGN OF PROSPERITY.—A Woodlandite in company with a friend stepped into one of the fashionable saloons of Sacramento a few days since and called for the drinks. The cooling beverages were enjoyed with gusto and a twenty dollar gold piece was thrown on the counter with a request for the polite barkeeper to "take your change." The knight of the decanter, eyeing for a moment the glittering piece, turned with a knowing look to his visitor. "Stanger," said he, "and are you from Yolo county, too?" "Yes," responded Woodlandite, "but why do you ask?" "Because," answered the other, "no less than a half a dozen of your kind have been to see me this morning, and all of them hail from Yolo, so you see my change has run out."

CHANGING HIS QUARTERS.—We learn with regret that our friend Jacob Levison, the popular clerk and accountant of Fleishman & Kaufman, is about leaving Woodland to establish himself in business in Sacramento. His upright, gentlemanly conduct and affable manners have gained him many warm friends in this community. In company with Wm. Price, an old and esteemed resident of this place, he has become one of the successors of F. Chevalier, No. 44 K street, Sacramento, and will continue the business of importing and wholesale dealing in wines and liquors.

PLANTATION BITTERS combine rare medicinal virtues with a delicious aroma, and a flavor grateful to the palate. It is purely vegetable, and in its composition all the requisites of science have been complied with. It is suitable for all ages and sexes. It is gentle, stimulating and soothing. All dyspeptic disorders are cured by it, and it repairs and restores nature's wasted powers. Plantation Bitters are increasing daily in favor with all classes. It relieves suffering, renders life a luxury, brightens the present, and throws a hopeful light on the future.

RAILROAD MAP.—We have received from the officers of the Company a copy of the map of the California Pacific Railroad. The line of this road is completed from Vallejo to Davisville, and will soon be put through to Sacramento. Next Summer, in all probability it will be built from Davisville through Woodland and Knight's Landing to Marysville.

RAISIN GRAPE.—Rev. M. M. Dodson has our thanks for some most excellent specimens of the raisin grape. Among the finest varieties we have seen is that know as the "Flaming Toquet," which grows in abundance on his ranch near town.

CORNET BAND.—The brass band mentioned last week has been organized. A splendid set of instruments have been purchased and rehearsals are being held almost every evening under the direction of the leader, H. A. Rowley, an experienced musician.

EXCURSION.—An excursion train will be run on the C. P. Railroad to-morrow, leaving Davisville at 8:30 A. M., and connecting with the steamer antelope at Vallejo at 11 A. M. for San Francisco. The train will return to-morrow evening, arriving at Davisville at 7 P. M.

REMOVED.—Dr. J. M. Case, formerly of this place and laterly of Simmons' Springs, Colusa county, has removed to San Francisco, and is at present consulting physician of the Pacific Hygenien Home Water-Cure Association, located at Oakland.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Democracy at the Solano House this evening. Speakers from Sacramento are expected to be present.

ELECTRO SILICON.—This curious and valuable substance is confidently claimed to be the BEST ARTICLE ever discovered for cleaning and polishing Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, and all smooth metallic surfaces, of whatever description, including kitchen utensils of tin, copper, brass, steel, etc.

"IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—So get a bottle of DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM, an unequalled preparation for Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cramp. The instantaneous relief for Burns, Bruises and Sprains.

TO HEADS OF FAMILIES.—Are your little ones subject to croup? If so, don't fail to use NEWELL'S PULMONARY SURUP. A few doses given in time MAY SAVE THE LIFE OF A DARLING CHILD. Do not fail to have it on hand, if you would be safe and free from anxiety.

RETURNED.—Mrs. C. S. Frost, who has been absent about four months—visiting her friends in Illinois—returned to this place on Wednesday last per overland, making the trip from Chicago in just eleven days. Mrs. F. is in excellent health and spirits, and expresses herself delighted with the return trip.

CALIFORNIA PACIFIC RAILROAD.—This road has been completed as far as Putah Creek. A bridge will be immediately constructed across that stream and in a few days the locomotive will make its first appearance in Yolo county.

TALL CORN.—John Beckett brought to this office this week a stalk of corn raised by him on Cache Creek, which measures sixteen feet and three inches in length. If any one can beat it we'll "acknowledge the corn."

FINE PEACHES.—We are under obligations to J. L. Gandy for a liberal supply of the finest peaches in the market, sent by him to this office the other day. For a like favor we are also indebted to John Beckett.

THE ELEGANT.—This pleasant beverage, so highly recommended by physicians for its medicinal properties, is kept by Joseph Heath, proprietor of the Railroad Exchange. Try "The Elegant."

LOCATED.—Dr. Geo. H. Jackson, formerly of Gold Run, Placer county, has permanently located in this place for the purpose of practicing his profession. See card.

GRANT AS AN ORATOR.—The following comprises about all the public speeches made by General Grant:

Speech at the great demonstration to sustain Andrew Johnson at Cooper Institute. June 7, 1865:

I thank you for this reception. If I were in the habit of speaking, I am so impressed by it that I would not be able to respond as I should like to do. You will have to excuse me.

Speech at the Dinner given to Grant at the Astor House, June 7, 1865:

Gentlemen—I know you will excuse me from attempting to reply to your very flattering remarks.

Speech at Kalamazoo:

I am not going to reply to the address, gentlemen. I could not do so if I should try.

Speech at the Union League Rooms, January 7, 1865:

After a long and flattering address from the Chief orator, Grant said:

Gentlemen—I bid you good night. I am much obliged to you for this reception.

Speech at the Biddle House, Detroit:

I bid you all good night.

Speech at Toledo, Ohio:

GENTLEMEN AND FELLOW-CITIZENS—Rev. Mr. Vincent, who has come out on the train from Chicago, has kindly consented to return my thanks for this hearty welcome, which you have given me.

Speech in New York on the Balcony of the City Hall, August 29, 1866:

Turning to Farragut he said; "Admiral, as it would be utterly impossible at this distance to make the people hear our voices, they will take our appearance for a speech."

Speech at the Banquet at Delmonico's, August 30, 1866:

On being toasted and vociferously cheered, the hero arose and said (rather incoherently):

"All I can say to you is, that if the President and his Cabinet had held to their determination I would have had to leave the Admiral to do the talking. We would have left you off, and you would have got to your beds."

Speech after the Banquent at Delmonico's:

Loud calls were made for General Grant, and that gallant officer was introduced by Mayor Hoffman. General Grant said, "that owing to the exhaustion which they all felt after the entertainment given by his Honor, the Mayor, they could not expect him to say anything further."

Speech at Niagara Falls:

Loud calls for Grant. "My modesty compels me to turn over that written speech to Mr. Hall, who will deliver it for me whenever it is written." [Cheers and laughter.]

Speech at Maysville, Ky., July 9:

GENTLENEN—I am very glad to see you, but you must not expect any speech from me. I leave that with my old schoolmate, Mr. Wadsworth.

PUBLIC DISCUSSION.—An arrangement has been made between HON. JAS. W. COFFROTH and HON. A. A. SARGENT for a meeting some time next month in Sacramento, for the purpose of a public discussion of the issues of the day. This meeting of opposing candidates for Congressional honors in the Second District is an example worthy to be followed by other candidates. A fair and free discussion of political questions in public can result in no harm. The meeting will, no doubt, be attended by a large number of both parties.

SCARCITY OF HELP.—Farmers in many portions of this valley are complaining that there is a scarcity of hands to harvest the grain. Crops this year are so much larger than usual, both in area and yield, that labor in the agricultural districts has become inadequate to the demand. A gentleman who resides in one of the largest grain producing districts in this county inform us that it will take fully until the November rains set in to thresh all the grain now being harvested.—[Stockton Gazette.

PERSONAL.—Ex-Governor Bigler is expected to arrive at Sacramento to-day from the East.

NO WONDER Job was so badly boiled; his wife kept him continually in hot water.

The Reasons for Insuring

—IN THE—

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company,

OF BOSTON.

By the Acts of Massachusetts, incorporated into the General Statutes of 1860 and 1864, a Policy of Life Insurance for the benefit of a Married Woman, or any person or persons specified, goes to them independently of the debts and liabilities of the party who effects the policy.

An Act to Regulate the Forfeiture of Policies of Life Insurance.

Be it Enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1.—No Policy of Insurance on Life, hereafter issued by any Company chartered by the authority of this Commonwealth, shall be forfeited or become void by the non-payment of premium thereon, any further than regards the right of the party insured therein to have it continued in force beyond a certain period, to be determined as follows, to-wit: The net value of the policy, when the premium becomes due and is not paid, shall be ascertained, according to the "combined experience" or "actuaries'" rate of mortality, with interest at four per cent. per annum. After deducting from such net value any indebtedness to the company or notes held by the company against the insured, which notes if given for premium shall then be canceled, four-fifths of what remains shall be considered as a net single premium of temporary insurance, and the term for which it will insure shall be determined according to the age of the party at the time of the lapse of the premium, and the assumptions of mortality and interest aforesaid.

SECTION 2.—If the death of the party occur within the term of temporary insurance covered by the value of the policy, as determined in the previous section, and if no condition of the insurance, other than the payment of premium shall have been violated by the insured, the company shall be bound to pay the amount of the policy the same as if there had been no lapse of premium, anything in the policy to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, however, that notice of the claim and proof of the death shall be submitted to the company within ninety days after decease; and provided, also, that the company shall have the right to deduct from the amount insured in the policy the amount at six per cent. per annum of the premiums that had been forborne at the time of the death.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

National Democratic Platform.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, stand upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the volunteer action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be resuscitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First—The immediate restoration of all States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution of civil government and the American people.

Second—Amnesty for all past political offenses and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third—The payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable, all money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and when the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth—Equal taxation of every species of property, according to value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond-holder.

Sixth—Economy in the administration of the Government, the reduction of the standing army and navy, the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to serve negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue; that the burden of taxation be equalized and lessened; the credit of the country made good; all enactments for the enrolling of the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports; and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh—Reform of abuses in the administration; the expulsion of corrupt men from office; the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to the independence of the Executive and Judicial Departments of the Government; the subordination of military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpation of Congress and despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which will command the respect of foreign powers, furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction. In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled opposition and tyranny which have worked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union it has so far as it is in its power dissolved it and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro suffrage. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions for constitutional tribunals. It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures. It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law. It has converted the American Capitol into a bastile. It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort. It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme and judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subject to great and atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created during the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution. And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States, and that we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress such usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must be ever gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption of homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, exercising the power of his office in restricting the aggression of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative elements, and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people; and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such as friends and brothers.

THE NEW

WEED

SEWING MACHINE!

Just completed, in SOLID STEEL MACHINERY, and combining in ONE the good of ALL!

This most enterprising Company has certainly brought out

THE BEST SEWING MACHINE EVER MADE!

And indeed is the ONLY NEW Sewing Machine, of any name, manufactured for the last eight years. Even a superficial observer can easily see that it surpasses all others, at least in the simplicity and durability of its machinery, and its remarkable

EASE OF MOTION AND MANAGEMENT.

It has few pieces, and all of steel. It makes the complete "Lock Stitch," the same on both sides, which will not ravel. Every Machine is warranted to sew from Thinest Lace, to Double Harness Leather!

and of course can never be got out of order by "hard sewing." ☞ All repairs free of charge. Prices same as others.

PLEASE NOTICE.

The claims of the Florence Company for the First Premium at the great Paris Exposition of 1867, though seeming true in letter, is really false in spirit and intent, and calculated greatly to deceive the public. Although it did receive the Silver Medal—that being the highest award given—it was not awarded the FIRST RANK! This was awarded the Weed Sewing Machine, and to the WEED only, as being "first in the order of merit." The second place was given to an European Machine, and only the third to the Florence! But the claim of the Wheeler & Wilson Company, at this Fair, is a great outrage, both as to letter and spirit; at least so much of it as pertains to their Gold Medal upon their Family Machine, which, to speak plain, is purely imaginary, they having received—as is well known—their Gold Medal on their "Button-hole Machine," but nothing at all on their "Family Machine;" not even a bronze medal, nor indeed (what is worse) even an "honorable mention." (See official report.) See also, as to the new WEED Sewing Machine, the returns of the State Fairs of Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Hampshire and New York, for 1867, at each of which the NEW WEED "F. F." Sewing Machine was pronounced the BEST, and received the highest premium given. And so also at other Fairs, and indeed wherever the Company shall choose to exhibit the "strong points" of this really magnificent Machine.

S. E. HOAR, General Agent,
Office 31 Kearny street, San Francisco.

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINE!

Over 82 Competitors,

— AT THE —

Great Paris Exposition, 1867,

Being the highest honors and all the Gold Medals awarded to any Sewing Machine Company at this Exposition.

As a HOLIDAY Present, Nothing will be more appreciated THAN ONE OF these MACHINES.

America, England and France, now unite in this grand Proclamation:

Good news! good news the cable brings,
O'er all the wires it flies,
Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machine
Brings back the golden prize.

Our "Uncle Sam" first struck the note,
"John Bull" then caught the sound;
Now comes from France the echo back,
Wheeler & Wilson's crowned.

And now, no more the people doubt,
So long its stood the test—
The thing is fairly noised about
And they will buy the best.

☞ We can now supply those who wish to purchase 'STODDARD'S PATENT TUCK-MARKER,' one of the most useful attachments to the Machine yet invented; which, while sewing one tuck, makes the line of marks for the next.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only Known Remedy

— FOR —

Diabetes, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Catarrh of the Bladder,
&c., &c., &c.

For these diseases, it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. Are you troubled with that disgusting pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

Physicians and Others

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with care, prepared in vacuo and according to the rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded. A Diuretic is that which acts upon the Kidneys. Helmbold's Extract Buchu acts gently. It is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action. For the satisfaction of all, see Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Uretha, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, cutaneous affections and Dropsy."

For further information see Professor Dewees' valuable works on the Practice of Physic. See remarks made by the celebrated Dr. Physic, of Philadelphia. See any and all standard works on Medicine.

Dr. Keyser is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical college and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia:

Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD—Dear Sir: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys; and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts. I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tincture fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality I give yours precedence over all others. I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietory compound of whatever name. Respectfully yours, etc.,

GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D., 140 Wood st.
Pittsburg, Pa., August 11, 1865.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

FROM THE LARGEST MANUFACTURING CHEMIST IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupies the drug store opposite my residence; and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (firm of Powers & Weightman), Manufacturing chemists, Ninth and Brown streets, Phila.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are genuine preparations, and knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physicians' simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare Pharmaceutical preparations. These parties resort to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies and finishing with certificates. The science of medicine stands simple, pure and majestic, having fact for its basis, induction for its pillar, truth alone for its capital.

A Word of Caution.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.
